Artist: Ualani Davis
Title:
Unprecedented Times

Artist Statement
How often have we heard the phrase “unprecedented times” to describe the past 2 years of the COVID-19 pandemic? Yet when we look back, this is not the first disease to disproportionately impact native populations. This is not the first time we experienced social isolation or quarantine. Nor is this the first time we made sacrifices for the health and safety of our communities. Composed of layers of deconstructed face masks, Unprecedented Times depicts quilt designs to draw connections, comfort, and understanding between our past and the past 2 years. I ka wā ma mua, i ka wā ma hope.

###